Lori,

Thanks for your follow-up.

With respect to the 12/30/2014 letter, I'm thinking that at this point all we need to put in the site file is the transmittal letter b/c that letter simply provided a DVD containing electronic scans of documents previously provided by CFAC with its 11/10/2014 production. I believe the latter collection is already in the site file. Please let me know if that's incorrect.

With respect to the 1/8/2015 [date of letter has new year typo], I'm similarly thinking that all we need to put in the site file is the transmittal letter b/c that letter simply provided a DVD containing electronic scans of documents previously provided by CFAC with its 1/02/2015 production. As with the production above, I believe the 1/02/2015 collection is already in the site file.

The transmittal letters can be coded uncontrolled.

Please let me know if you have any questions.
Mark

Lori,

Per our discussion I have created a temporary 30-day folder on the I:/drive, which is organized by numbered subfolder. Attached is my updated master list with numbered subfolders for cross-referencing.

I will separately send you the confidential PRP search report.

Thank you.

Mark
